

AWARD POLICY

LA MARTINIÈRE MODEL UNITED NATIONS 2026

Delegation Award:

The Thirteenth Session of La Martinière Model United Nations shall present a singular Best School Delegation award, which will be decided by calculating as to how many and which award(s) a delegation wins on the basis of our point system, which is as follows:

1. Secretary-General's Best Delegate (if awarded)	-	10 points
2. Best Delegate	-	7 points
3. High Commendation	-	4 points.
4. Special Mention	-	2 points
5. Honourable Mention	-	1 point

Secretary-General's Best Delegate:

If the Secretariat decides to bestow this award, each committee, except the International Press, shall have its two best performers compete for it in the 'Fleury Martin Hour', named in honour of the father of the College's founder, Major General Claude Martin. This specific session, if held, will be convened in the Seventh Session on Day 3, i.e. the 1st of November. The delegates shall receive a background of the committee and the agenda. They are expected to be settled in and portfolios shall be chosen by lottery.

Further details regarding the same shall be communicated to the delegates by the end of the Sixth Session on Day 3.

Delegate Awards

Delegate awards are presented on the basis of delegates' overall performance over the course of the three-day conference. The Executive Board Panel for each committee decides upon the allocation of awards. Once the award lists for the respective committees are handed over to the Secretariat, no alterations shall be entertained. Although there isn't a strict formula, awards typically go to delegates who have been prominent in oration, committee presence, lobbying, constructive arguments, and paperwork drafting. The Secretariat reserves the right to amend the number of awards in each committee. The specific awards in each committee are listed below. The number of Honourable Mentions shall be based on the discretion of the Executive Board Panel for each committee.
